The first system of the score features four vocal staves (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) and a piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "Preach-in' up a storm, — Preach-in' up a storm of Spi - rit! —". The piano part consists of chords in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand.

The second system shows the piano accompaniment for the second vocal line. It features a melodic line in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand, continuing the harmonic support for the vocalists.

The third system shows the piano accompaniment for the third vocal line. It features a melodic line in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand, continuing the harmonic support for the vocalists.

The first system of the musical score consists of four vocal staves and a piano accompaniment. The vocal staves are arranged in a four-part setting (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass). Each vocal line begins with a square box containing the letter 'D', indicating a D major chord. The lyrics are: "Here's the word they shared at Pent - e - cost: — "Je - sus rose up from the — dead..". The piano accompaniment features a steady eighth-note melody in the right hand and block chords in the left hand.

————— the dead. — Hey, I'll send you my spi - - rit." — That'swhat Je - sus — said,.

The second system of the musical score continues the four-part vocal setting and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "————— Hey, I'll send you my spi - rit." — That'swhat Je - sus — said,." repeated for the first three vocal parts, and "————— the dead. — Hey, I'll send you my spi - - rit." — That'swhat Je - sus — said,." for the fourth part. The piano accompaniment continues with the same eighth-note melody and block chords.
