

When Did We See You Hungry, Lord

James A Frazier

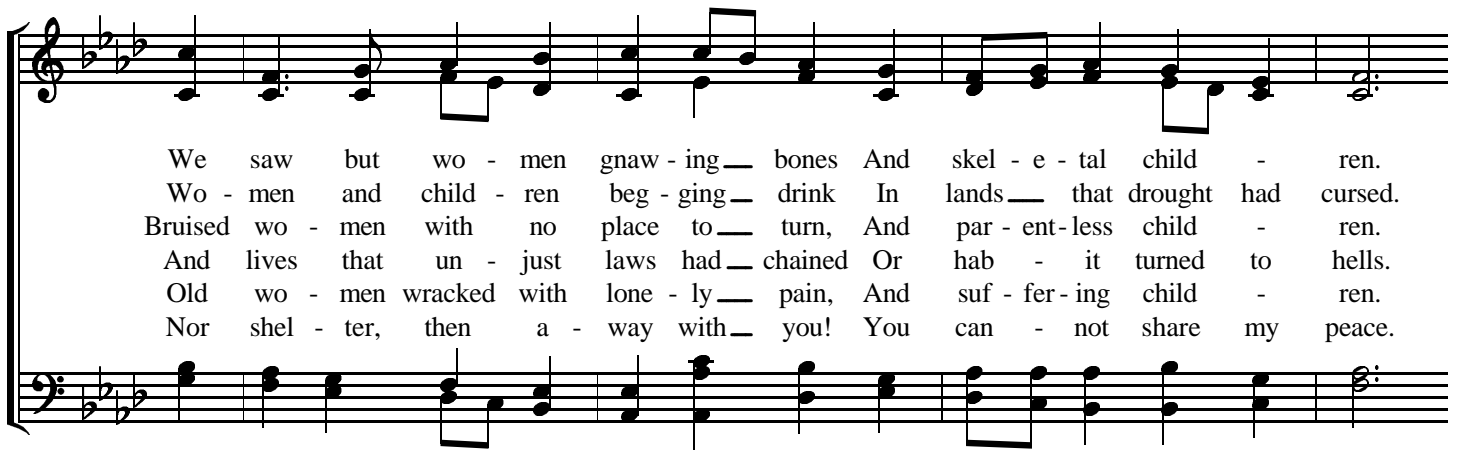

Words (C) Copyright 1986, James A Frazier & Tom Neal

Jon Scott Jones

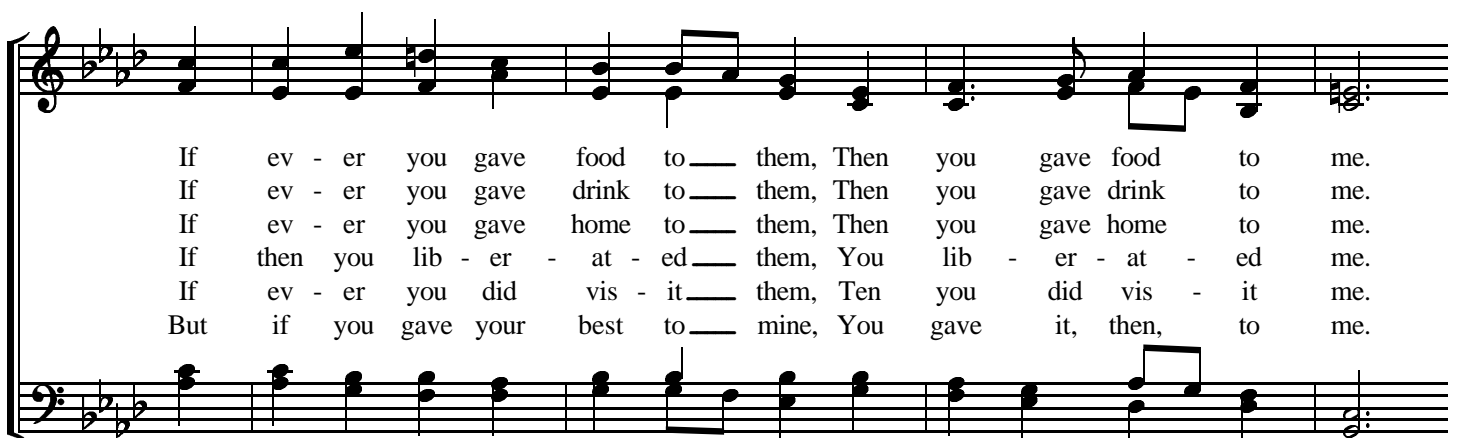

Music (C) Copyright 1988, Jon Scott Jones

1. When did we see you hun - gry, — Lord? We saw but starv - ing men
2. When did we see you thirst - y, — Lord? We saw but men a - thirst;
3. When did we see you home - less, — Lord? We saw but va - grant men,
4. When did we see you pris - oned, — Lord? We saw but men in cells,
5. When did we see you sick, O — Lord? We saw but ail - ing men.
6. If you gave neith - er food, nor — drink, Nor suc - cor, nor re - lease,

We saw but wo - men gnaw - ing — bones And skel - e - tal child - ren.
Wo - men and child - ren beg - ging — drink In lands — that drought had cursed.
Bruised wo - men with no place to — turn, And par - ent - less child - ren.
And lives that un - just laws had — chained Or hab - it turned to hells.
Old wo - men wracked with lone - ly — pain, And suf - fer - ing child - ren.
Nor shel - ter, then a - way with — you! You can - not share my peace.

If ev - er you gave food to — them, Then you gave food to me.
If ev - er you gave drink to — them, Then you gave drink to me.
If ev - er you gave home to — them, Then you gave home to me.
If then you lib - er - at - ed — them, You lib - er - at - ed me.
If ev - er you did vis - it — them, Ten you did vis - it me.
But if you gave your best to — mine, You gave it, then, to me.

You bless - ed of my Fath - er come and take e - ter - ni - ty. A - - - men.